Title:

The Age of Analytics – How Data is Changing the Business World today

Presenter:

Mr Mayven Naicker, McKinsey and Company, Email:
mayven_naicker@mckinsey.com

Biosketch:

Mayven is a Partner at McKinsey's Johannesburg office, and joined 8 years ago. He is part of the Financial Institutions practice at McKinsey and also leads McKinsey's Africa Analytics Practice.

Abstract:

The talk will focus on the potential of applied data science within the business environment – what has changed, how is it being applied, what industry shifts are looming as a result. It will also touch on the looming skills gap in the marketplace for data and analytics talent.
